Basic Information

About Counseling & Student Development

The Counseling & Student Development Office is a welcoming environment where we get to know our students and assist them with achieving educational, career, and personal goals. We offer guidance, support, and encouragement.

We can assist you through individual appointments, interest and career assessments, orientation and career-planning classes, and student development activities.

Philosophy

Favorite Quotes "Your success is our goal."

"Have you taken your placement tests and submitted your transcripts?"

"How can we help you?"
